

How to Use the Early Start Community Infographic Handout

Q: Who developed this resource?

The Early Start Community Infographic was developed by the Family Resource Centers Network of California (FRCNCA) in collaboration with the California Department of Developmental Services and WestEd.

Q: How do I use this resource?

Make copies of this resource available to parents and caretakers of children under the age of three. If you can, take time to help the family research their local family resource center, library branch, regional center, etc. Have the family write their local organizations in the spaces provided.

Q: Who can I contact for more information about Early Start?

For general questions about the statewide Early Start program, contact DDS at 1-800-515-BABY (2229) or earlystart@dds.ca.gov.

For specific questions about the Early Start program in your area, contact your local regional center. To find the regional center serving your county, visit <https://www.dds.ca.gov/rc/lookup-rs-by-county/>.

For questions about how to support families in your area, contact your local Early Start family resource center (ES FRC).
